FLOOR DEBATE

April 10, 2002 LB 1021

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Senator Jensen, does this bill cover a lot of different issues?

SENATOR JENSEN: It...it includes a lot of professionals and, yes, their regulation and licensure.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So there are a lot of different things that have to be covered by this bill and some references were incorrectly placed, or something along that line, and that's why we're...

SENATOR JENSEN: That is correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...doing the whole bill, a hundred and something pages?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes, it is.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Jensen, do you feel that the reach of this bill is broad enough for me to offer an amendment to repeal the statute that allows the state to invest in bonds of Israel?

SENATOR JENSEN: (Laugh) No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If I would attempt such an amendment what would your reaction be?

SENATOR JENSEN: I would probably oppose the amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How would you oppose it?

SENATOR JENSEN: By asking the body to vote in opposition to that amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you be opposed to the substance of the amendment?

SENATOR JENSEN: To the bonds of Israel? I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.
